

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITY
Centre for Russian and Eurasian Studies

Workshop
“Researching the Fate of Raoul Wallenberg and other Unresolved Questions Pertaining to the History of the Cold War
Archival Studies and Research Methodology”

Thursday 9 May, 2013
University Main Building, Lecture Hall IX

09.00-09.05 Welcome and Opening Remarks

Dr. Johan Matz, UCRS Centre for Russian and Eurasian Studies, Uppsala University.

09.05-09.20 The Raoul Wallenberg Case

*Ambassador Hans Magnusson, The Swedish Foreign Ministry, Chairman of the Swedish-Russian Working Group on the Raoul Wallenberg-Case 1991-2001.
Presentation: tba.*

09.20-10.10 Panel I

*Professor Mark Kramer (Chair), Director of Cold War Studies at Harvard University and Senior Fellow of Harvard’s Davis Center for Russian and Eurasian Studies.
Presentation: “Unresolved Questions and the Possibilities of Addressing Them”.*

Professor Olga Pavlenko, Vice-Director of Institute for History and Archives, Dean of the Faculty of International Relations and Regional Studies of Russian State University for Humanities (RGGU), Moscow.

Presentation: “The new publications of the Cold war history's documents from the Russian archives: the main trends and approaches”.

Dr. Nikita Petrov, Memorial, Moscow.

Presentation: “What do we really know about Wallenberg’s destiny?”

10.10-10.30 Coffee

10.30-11.20 Panel I (continued)

Professor Bengt Jangfeldt, Center for History of Science at the Royal Academy of Sciences, Stockholm.

Presentation: “Carl Ivan Danielsson’s silence about Raoul Wallenberg”.

Professor Alexei Komarov, Leading Research Fellow at the Institute of World History, Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow.

Presentation: “The Central Archive of the Social and Political History of Moscow as a documentary source on the Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs machinery and the policy-making: early Cold War period”.

Professor Helene Carlbäck, Director of the Centre for Baltic and East European Studies, CBEES, at Södertörn University, Sweden

Presentation: “Myth, Facts and Public Interest. A Challenge for Historical Research”.

11.20-11.50 Discussion

11.50-13.00 Lunch

13.00-13.45 Panel II

Professor Stefan Karner (Chair), Director of the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Research on War Consequences, Graz, Vienna.

Presentation: “20 years in Russian Archives”.

Professor Ohto Manninen. Helsinki and Tampere Universities.

Presentation: “Studying Politically Complex 20th Century History in Russian Archives: Finnish Experiences”.

Professor Bogdan Musial, The Institute for International Law, European Union and International Relations of the Cardinal Wyszyński University, Warsaw.

Presentation: “The Soviet Archival Policy towards Poland 1945-1991 and Polish-Russian Archival Cooperation since 1991”.

13.45-14.10 Coffee

14.10-14.40 Panel II (continued)

Dr. Peter Ruggenthaler, The Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Research on War Consequences, Graz.

Presentation: “Studies on the Soviet Union and Neutrality”.

Dr. Johan Matz, UCRS, Centre for Russian and Eurasian Studies, Uppsala University

Presentation: “Soviet Cables in Cipher and the Raoul Wallenberg Case”.

14.40-15.30 Discussion and summing up